STAT 5. [] On Saturday, 23 March, Commander Menshan, of the Security Review Staff of Department of Defense, called to say that in "sanitizing" the transcript of Secretary McNamara's testimony before Senate Armed Services Committee, an item had been deleted by their people to which Senator Symington has now taken issue. After cross-conversations, which carried over to Monday, with Defense, Jim Gehrig of Symington's staff, and Bill Darden of the Armed Services Committee staff, the matter was resolved and the item restored to the transcript. (See Memo for the Record for details.)

STAT 6. []) Dropped by the office of Senator Clinton P. Anderson and talked with Mr. Claude Wood, his Administrative Assistant, regarding a letter from a constituent presently in the Navy and interested in "espionage" and possible future employment with the Agency. Mr. Wood was given a draft reply for his use which included a copy of the pamphlet entitled "The Central Intelligence Agency" and a copy of the Personnel professional brochure. Mr. Wood said this was precisely what he needed and appreciated our assistance.

STAT 7. [] Talked briefly with Doris Whitmus, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, regarding a letter from the Senator concerning the whereabouts of one [] of Tacoma, STAT
WASHINGTON, who disappeared some thirteen years ago. I advised STAT Miss Whitmus that the Agency had no record whatsoever on [] but I agreed to ask the Executive Officer of OSS to check his files to see if [] was ever associated with OSS as alleged by []
